

WEEK 7 TERM 1 2019

Kia ora koutou Tinui whānau and friends!

It's been a sad time for our country but being the resilient lot we are, we have bounced back and shown our support in many and varied ways for the sector of our community that have been most heavily impacted by the Christchurch attacks.

There has been some information sent out via our Skool Loop app around dealing with trauma and if you would like more information message me directly at school.

I have been contacted by the Ministry and they have offered us support if we require it. We have also refreshed the students on our lockdown procedure.

Last week we sent out forms with emergency pick up contacts should there be an emergency at school or natural disaster etc. Thanks to those families who have returned these forms. If you have not done so please fill them in and return them as soon as possible. Also if you have not returned the Bus Code of Conduct please return that to school asap also.

Well done to Milly, Jock, Sofia and Harvey who all qualified to swim at the Wairarapa Schools Regional Swimming Championship. They all agreed it was a big step up in competition level from the interschools meeting.

I hope you all have an awesome weekend!

If you need to contact me please do so at school or on principal@tinui.school.nz

Have an awesome weekend!

The Bank Robbery

One cold, dark, windy night in Whoville where all the Hoos live there was a bank robbery and all the vaults were robbed and left wide open for Detective Zarn to catch the thief.

Detective Zarn pulled out his magnifying glass and a sack of white fingerprint powder. He loaded his powder gun "chik chik bang" he found some fingerprints and a couple of foot steps "Yus." He rang his mate with a Detective sniffer dog to sniff the thief down. "Ruf ruf" the dog got a scent. "Follow the dog as he runs away".

The sniffer dog finds a small bit of tobacco and all of a sudden the dog bolts and the lead rope snaps as Detective Zarn runs after the dog. When he catches up to the dog he finds the thief cornered with a big pipe in his mouth and with sacks of money. "Bob why are you robbing the bank?" said Detective Zarn.

"Ummm I don't know I thought it would be cool" answered Bob. "I'm calling the cops" said detective Zarn" as the dog keeps Bob in the corner.

Please make sure your child takes their hat back to school if they have bought it home in their bag. Caps are not adequate sun protection as they provide no protection for the ears and back of the neck.
